IRR Advisory NGO Grading will be a point-in-time assessment of the entity's ability to conduct operations in a scalable and sustainable manner. NGO Grading will not be monitored by IRR Advisory. NGO Grading does not comment on the debt repayment capacity and does not constitute a credit rating or audit. In case of entities with multiple financial and / or non-financial activities, the NGO grading applies only to the particular NGO under assessment. The procedures for issuing a credit rating differ from the procedures used to issue an NGO Grading. NGO Gradings are based on the information provided by the graded entity or obtained from IRR Advisory from sources that, in its opinion, are reliable. IRR Advisory does not guarantee the completeness or accuracy of the information on which the NGO Grading is based. NGO Grading may not be interpreted as IRR Advisory's recommendations to lend or donate / grant funds and purchase, sell or hold any financial instrument or security issued by the graded NGO. In addition, grading definitions and the terms of use of such gradings are available on the agency's public website www.irradvisory.com

Reproduction or retransmission in whole or in part is prohibited except by permission. All rights reserved. In issuing and maintaining its gradings and in making other reports (including forecast information), IRR Advisory relies on factual information it receives from issuers and underwriters and from other sources IRR Advisory believes to be credible. IRR Advisory conducts a reasonable investigation of the factual information relied upon by it in accordance with its gradings methodology, and obtains reasonable verification of that information from independent sources, to the extent such sources are available for a given security or in a given jurisdiction. The manner of IRR Advisory's factual investigation and the scope of the third- party verification it obtains will vary depending on the nature of the graded security and its issuer, the requirements and practices in the jurisdiction in which the graded security is offered and sold and/or the issuer is located, the availability and nature of relevant public information, access to the management of the issuer and its advisers, the availability of pre- existing third-party verifications such as audit reports, agreed-upon procedures letters, appraisals, actuarial reports, engineering reports, legal opinions and other reports provided by third parties, the availability of independent and competent third- party verification sources with respect to the particular security or in the particular jurisdiction of the issuer, and a variety of other factors. Users of IRR Advisory's gradings and reports should understand that neither an enhanced factual investigation nor any third-party verification can ensure that all of the information IRR Advisory relies on in connection with a grading or a report will be accurate and complete. Ultimately, the issuer and its advisers are responsible for the accuracy of the information they provide to IRR Advisory and to the market in offering documents and other reports. In issuing its gradings and its reports, IRR Advisory must rely on the work of experts, including independent auditors with respect to financial statements and attorneys with respect to legal and tax matters. Further, gradings and forecasts of financial and other information are inherently forward-looking and embody assumptions and predictions about future events that by their nature cannot be verified as facts. As a result, despite any verification of current facts, gradings and forecasts can be affected by future events or conditions that were not anticipated at the time a grading or forecast was issued or affirmed.

The information in this report is provided "as is" without any representation or warranty of any kind, and IRR Advisory does not represent or warrant that the report or any of its contents will meet any of the requirements of a recipient of the report. An IRR Advisory grading is an opinion and this opinion and reports made by IRR Advisory are based on established criteria and methodologies that IRR Advisory is continuously evaluating and updating. Therefore, gradings and reports are the collective work product of IRR Advisory and no individual, or group of individuals, is solely responsible for a grading or a report. The grading does not address the risk of loss due to risks other than credit risk, unless such risk is specifically mentioned. IRR Advisory is not engaged in the offer or sale of any security. All IRR Advisory reports have shared authorship. Individuals identified in a IRR Advisory report were involved in, but are not solely responsible for, the opinions stated therein. The individuals are named for contact purposes only. A report providing IRR Advisory grading is neither a prospectus nor a substitute for the information assembled, verified and presented to investors by the issuer and its agents in connection with the sale of the securities. Gradings may be changed or withdrawn at any time for any reason in the sole discretion of IRR Advisory. IRR Advisory does not provide investment advice of any sort. Gradings are not a recommendation to buy, sell, or hold any security. Gradings do not comment on the adequacy of market price, the suitability of any security for a particular investor, or the tax-exempt nature or taxability of payments made in respect to any security. IRR Advisory receives fees from issuers, insurers, guarantors, other obligors, and underwriters for grading securities. Such fees generally vary from US$1,000 to US$750,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent) per issue. In certain cases, IRR Advisory will grade all or a number of issues issued by a particular issuer, or insured or guaranteed by a particular insurer or guarantor, for a single annual fee. Such fees are expected to vary from US$10,000 to US$1,500,000 (or the applicable currency equivalent). The assignment, publication, or dissemination of a grading by IRR Advisory shall not constitute a consent by IRR Advisory to use its name as an expert in connection with any registration statement filed under the United States securities laws, the Financial Services and Markets Act of 2000 of the United Kingdom, or the securities laws of any particular jurisdiction. Due to the relative efficiency of electronic publishing and distribution, IRR Advisory research may be available to electronic subscribers up to three days earlier than to print subscribers.
